CHAP. 1601.—An Act Directing the issue of a duplicate of a lost check, drawn by Arthur J. Pritchard, pay director of the United States Navy, in favor of the Davis Coal and Coke Company.

Preamble.

Whereas it appears that Arthur J. Pritchard, pay director of the United States Navy, did, on the twentieth day of October, nineteen hundred and two, issue a check, numbered thirty-nine thousand three hundred and forty-one, upon the assistant treasurer of the United States at Baltimore, Maryland, in favor of the Davis Coal and Coke Company, of West Virginia, for the sum of two thousand seven hundred and twenty-five dollars and seventy-nine cents, in payment for coal delivered to the bureaus of yards and docks and construction and repair, United States Navy-Yard, at Brooklyn, New York; and

Whereas the said check was duly received at the offices of the said Davis Coal and Coke Company, number one Broadway, New York, on October twenty-seventh, nineteen hundred and two, and the same was forwarded immediately upon receipt to Arthur Lee, treasurer of the said Davis Coal and Coke Company, at Elkins, West Virginia; and

Whereas the said Arthur Lee, treasurer of the said Davis Coal and Coke Company, does not acknowledge the receipt of said check at the office of the said company at Elkins, West Virginia, and which said check is alleged to have been lost in transmission through the United States mails, and the said check not having been presented to the said assistant treasurer of the United States at Baltimore, Maryland, for payment; and

Vol. 23, p. 306.

Whereas the provisions of the Act of February sixteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-five, amending section thirty-six hundred and forty-six, Revised Statutes of the United States, authorizing United States disbursing officers and agents to issue duplicates of lost checks, apply only to checks drawn for two thousand five hundred dollars or less: Therefore,

Davis Coal and Coke Company, W. Va. Duplicate check to.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That said Arthur J. Pritchard, pay director of the United States Navy, be, and he is hereby, instructed to issue a duplicate of said original check to the Davis Coal and Coke Company, or, in case said Pritchard shall cease to be in the service of the United States, then the amount shall be paid under the provisions of section thirty-six hundred and forty-six of the Revised Statutes of the United States and the regulations issued in pursuance thereof by the Secretary of the Treasury.

[Private, No. 1443.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to abate the inheritance tax assessed against James T. Barry and Richard Cushion, executors of the last will and testament of Martin Dowling, of Rye, New York, as to so much of said estate as shall be established to his satisfaction to have been given to and vested in charitable or other institutions by said James T. Barry and Richard Cushion which under the war-revenue Act of June thirteenth, eighteen hundred and ninety-eight, as amended by the Acts of March second, nineteen hundred and one, and June twenty-second, nineteen hundred and two, would have been exempt from inheritance tax had the property been bequeathed by Martin Dowling direct to said institutions; and the said Secretary is further authorized to proportionately abate any of said assessment from time to time within the period of two years after the passage of this Act, upon satisfactory proof of the further gift by said James T. Barry and Richard Cushion of any portion of said estate to any institution or institutions so exempt from inheritance tax as aforesaid. So far as such tax shall be abated under the provisions of this Act, no inheritance tax shall be collected by reason of the passing of the legal title of said property to the said James T. Barry and Richard Cushion, and the said executors shall be, and are hereby, relieved from the payment of any such tax which may have attached to said property by reason of the said Act of June thirteenth, eighteen hundred and ninety-eight.

Italian-Swiss Agricultural Colony, California.
Relief of.

CHAP. 295.—An Act To relieve the Italian-Swiss Agricultural Colony from the internal-revenue tax on certain spirits destroyed by fire.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Italian-Swiss Agricultural Colony, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of California, be relieved from the payment of an assessment, or any part or portion thereof, made against the aforesaid corporation by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, amounting to the sum of nine hundred and fifty-six dollars and eighty-nine cents, said assessment having been placed against said corporation on account of the accidental destruction by fire of ten barrels of spirits, commonly called grape brandy, while being transported by rail from fruit distillery numbered one hundred and eight, located at Asti, California, to winery numbered one hundred and nine, located near Madera, California, and before said spirits could be used in said winery for fortifying pure sweet wine. The Commissioner of Internal Revenue is hereby authorized and directed to cancel the said assessment without the payment of the aforesaid tax or any part or portion thereof.
